Shepherd Brass Band Safeguarding Policy

This policy applies to all members, volunteers or anyone working on behalf of any of the bands within the Shepherd Brass Band. (Senior Band, Concert Brass, Youth Band, Academy Band, Brass Roots and Project Band)

The purpose of this policy:

1. To protect children, young people and adults with care and support needs who are members of the band.

2. To provide staff and volunteers with the overarching principles that guide our approach to child protection

The Shepherd Brass Band believes that a child, young person or adult with care and support needs should never experience abuse of any kind. We have a responsibility to promote the welfare of all children, young people and adults at risk and to keep them safe. We are committed to practice in a way that protects them.

Legal framework

This policy has been drawn up based on law and guidance that seeks to protect children and adults at risk, namely:

- Children Act (1989)
- United Convention of the Rights of the Child (1991)
- Data Protection Act (1998) and subsequent data protection guidance
- Sexual Offences Act (2003)
- Children Act (2004)
- Protection of Freedoms Act (2012)
- Working together to safeguarding children: a guide to inter-agency working to safeguard and promote the welfare of children; HM Government (2015)
- The Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act (2006)
- The Human Rights Act (1998)
- The Children and Families Act (2014)
- Special educational needs and disability (SEND) code of practice: 0 to 25 years - Statutory guidance for organisations which work with and support children aand young people who have special educational needs or disabilities; HM Government (2014)
- General Data Protection Regulations (European Union) (2017)
- Information sharing: Advice for practitioners providing safeguarding services to children, young people, parents and carers; HM Government (2015)
- The Care Act (2014)
- The Care Act (2014) Care and Support Statutory Guidance (specifically the safeguarding section of this)
- The Mental Capacity Act (2005)

We recognise that:

The welfare of the child is paramount, as enshrined in the Children Act (1989).

All children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have a right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse.

Some children are additionally vulnerable because of the impact of previous experiences, their level of dependency, communication needs or other issues.

Working in partnership with children, young people, their parents, carers and other agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

In addition, we are aware that we also have safeguarding responsibilities towards adult members, some of whom may be vulnerable at different times in their lives. The principles outlined above in relation to children, also apply to our work with adults. In terms of a legal framework, the arrangements for those over 18 are governed by the Care Act 2014. This Act stipulates that statutory safeguarding duties apply to an adult who has care and support needs, and is experiencing, or at risk of, abuse or neglect, and, as a result of those care and support needs, is unable to protect themselves from either the risk of, or the experience of, abuse or neglect.

We will seek to keep children, young people and adults safe by:

Valuing them, listening to and respecting them, ensuring that, in the case of adults, we work with their consent unless 'vital interests' [as defined in the Data Protection Act (1998)] are at stake, or the person has been assessed as lacking mental capacity [as defined in the Mental Capacity Act (2005)].

Adopting child protection and adult safeguarding practices through procedures and a code of conduct for and members and volunteers.

Providing effective support and training for volunteers with responsibility for children or vulnerable adults.

Recruiting staff and volunteers safely, ensuring all necessary checks are made. All volunteers working with children will be DBS checked before starting to volunteer and the DBS's will be checked regularly.

Sharing information about child protection and adult safeguarding with children, parents, volunteers and members.

Sharing concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately.
